ONE WEEK LATER...

HI, ELENA. WHAT DID YOU TELL YOUR FRIEND, SEAN?

I TOLD HIM NOT TO SPEND ALL HIS MONEY ON POWER BOT CARDS. GOOD THING, TOO--THEY'RE SO LAST WEEK! MR. TIBBETS BOUGHT THEM ALL INSTEAD FOR HIS TOY STORE.

HEY, EVERYBODY!

I GOT AN A IN MY ARCHITECTURE CLASS!

GOOD GOING, RADLEY! IT LOOKS GREAT!

WORDS FROM WARREN

Hey kids. Warren Buffett here!

A business is difficult to judge if the supply and demand of a product is based on the fickle sentiment of consumers. You always want to invest in a business that is dependable and predictable; otherwise you can end up making a mistake. This is similar to MAKING FRIENDS. If you are fickle and not reliable and dependable, people will NEVER know how to judge you. So, remember: Always be reliable, consistently friendly to others, and learn from your mistakes--better yet, learn from the mistakes of others!
